

City anticipates large housing budget

By JEFF BROWN
BELLE GLADE - If the final nod is received from county and federal officials, Belle Glade could be receiving over a million dollars in the next fiscal year to use on Community Development projects.
 According to Remar M. Harvin, the city's Planning and Community Development director, the funds will be used on a wide assortment of projects ranging from street and sidewalk repairs to housing demolition, rehabilitation and replacement.
 "It does appear that there are some exciting things scheduled for Belle Glade," said Harvin at a workshop meeting of the Belle Glade city commission Wednesday evening, September 29.

 "I challenge anybody to find a city this size that has as comprehensive and as broad a program as we have here," said Mayor Thomas L. Altman. "Job well done, Remar. It's really staggering when you consider the scope of things we have here."
 Harvin explained where the proposed funds are to come from and what projects are eligible for each of the different allocations city officials expect to receive.

He said the city will probably receive about $100,000 from the federal government's Emergency Jobs Bill. That proposal is waiting for the completion of the Department of Housing and Urban Development's environmental review before the funds are released.
 The city will use part of those funds to hire a code enforcement officer and a purchasing agent. Both of those individuals must be previously unemployed, and Harvin said tentative plans are to use the Florida State Employment Service to locate the new employees.
 The city had budgeted funds for both individuals in the 1983-1984 fiscal year budget, but if HUD approves the allocation as Harvin expects, the city's general fund allocation can be used elsewhere.

 The city will have to fund the new positions starting in the 1984-1985 fiscal year.
 Harvin said the city should also receive about $200,000 to use on public works projects such as the WeeCare project area.
 Another $340,000 could be received through Section 108. Harvin said that under that allocation, several activities, including acquiring no-

Two found slain in store

TWO INDIVIDUALS DIED in a convenience store on Northwest 16th Street, victims of an apparent murder-suicide Tuesday. A 12-gauge shotgun was found inside the establishment.

Murder-suicide suspected by Belle Glade police officers

By JEFF BROWN
BELLE GLADE - Law enforcement officers are investigating an apparent murder-suicide that left a Belle Glade couple dead in a local city convenience store Tuesday afternoon.
 According to Belle Glade Police Detective John R. Carney, Rhonda Rhinehart, 22 and her husband, Charles Robert Rhinehart, 25, of 802 Northwest 13th Street in Belle Glade, were found dead in the Timesaver convenience store located at Northwest 16th Street and Northwest Avenue D at between 4:30 and 5 p.m. The father and son who found the victims of apparent gunshot wounds notified the police.
 Carney said police believe the incident may be a murder-suicide.
 A 12-gauge shotgun was found at the scene.
 The scene was investigated by the Belle Glade Police Department, the Palm Beach County Medical Examiner's Office and the State Attorney's office.

 Carney said an autopsy was scheduled on the two bodies for Wednesday.
 Rhonda Rhinehart was an employee of the Timesaver company.
 The two were involved in a domestic dispute that involved a firearm Saturday, October 1, but Carney said police have not determined that the two events are related.
 In the earlier event, the Rhineharts and a female relative had apparently left a local drinking establishment and returned to the couple's apartment where the couple allegedly engaged in an argument, according to Detective Ray Swaford.
 Sometime during that dispute, Charles Rhinehart allegedly brandished a firearm in his wife's face. She apparently pushed the gun away and it apparently discharged into the floor of the second floor apartment.
 Rhonda Rhinehart and the relative apparently left the apartment and reported the incident to the police but didn't press charges, said Swaford.

 The next morning, the neighbors who lived below the Rhineharts discovered the discharged round of ammunition in the wall of their apartment and reported it to the authorities, but they too refused to press charges, said Swaford.
 Swaford said Tuesday morning that a charge of firing a firearm in an occupied dwelling was pending the state attorney's office review of the case, since none of the individuals involved wanted to press the charges.
 That was prior to the incident at the convenience store later Tuesday.
 "No arrests were made in that incident because no one requested any arrests," said Carney Tuesday evening. "It is not known whether it has any bearing on this case."

Off-duty officers make pot arrests

BELLE GLADE - Police have confiscated about four pounds of marijuana and charged two Belle Glade men with possession of marijuana after two off-duty Belle Glade police officers saw the two men in possession of the contraband last week.
 According to Detective John R. Carney of the Belle Glade Police Department, the two officers saw the bundle of marijuana in possession of William Lee Hoke, 36, of 425 Southwest Avenue D number 102 early Thursday, September 29.

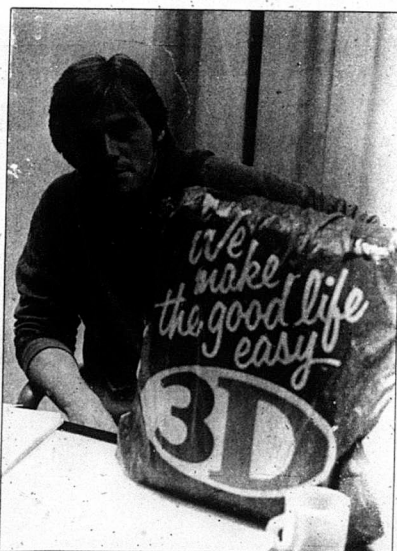

Hoke was arrested in the parking lot of Jack's Place, 301 Southwest Fifth Street and charged with possession of marijuana more than 20 grams and possession of marijuana with intent to sell.
 The manager of the establishment, Robert Eugene Philpaw, 1108 West Canal Street, was arrested and charged with the misdemeanor of possession of less than 20 grams.
 Police confiscated between three-and-a-half and four pounds of marijuana in the arrest.

Ambulance service taken over by new company

A private company has taken over the basic ambulance service in the southwest Palm Beach County area.
 Palm Beach Atlantic starting taking calls at 12:01 a.m. Saturday, October 1, according to Patrick Lennon, the administrator at Glades General Hospital. Glades General used to offer advanced life support and basic ambulance services, but will only be offering the advanced life support service now.
 The county commission awarded the basic ambulance service contract to Palm Beach Atlantic last week. The company will receive a 100 percent subsidy from the county that will total $836,768 over the next three years.

 Glades General had bid $851,988.75 to supply the same service.
 Lennon informed the county in late August that the hospital was forced to discontinue its ambulance service due to financial constraints. The hospital had been offering the service with no subsidy from the county for four years.
 The county had received proposals from Glades General and Palm Beach Atlantic Ambulance Service.
 The private firm won the bid for

On SR 80 Two charged with death

BELLE GLADE - Two men have been charged with vehicular homicide after they allegedly struck and killed an Okeechobee man with their vehicles on state road 80 last week.
 According to Detective Mike Johnson of the Belle Glade Police Department, Michael Steven Wright, 21, was walking in the westbound lane of state road 80 about 1:30 a.m. Friday, September 30, when he was struck by a vehicle allegedly driven by Agapito Bella, 18, of Georgia.
 Bella, who was heading west when he supposedly struck Wright, drove to a friend's home.
 Bella and the friend, Jose Armand Gutierrez, 22, of 108 Northeast Street in Belle Glade, returned to the scene in Gutierrez's vehicle, according to Johnson.
 While looking for Wright, they apparently struck him again.
 Gutierrez left a witness at the scene and went to notify police of the incident.
 Police arrived at the scene at about 1:35 a.m., said Johnson.
 Wright was treated by the Glades Ambulance Service advanced life support unit and taken to Glades General Hospital where he was stabilized and transported by Palm Beach County Sheriff's helicopter to John F. Kennedy Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia.
 He died at the hospital at 9:50 a.m. Monday, October 3 due to injuries he suffered in the incident.
 Bella was charged with driving while intoxicated, unlawful blood alcohol content, leaving the scene of an accident involving serious injury and vehicular homicide.
 Gutierrez was charged with driving while intoxicated, unlawful blood alcohol content and vehicular homicide.

Proposed budget is commendable

The proposed budget for the Community Development program in Belle Glade's southwest section should silence those who offer criticism of the efforts to improve housing and living conditions in the area, but it probably won't.

The city will probably receive about $1.1 million to use for housing rehabilitation, housing construction and improvements to the southwest section during the 1983-1984 fiscal year.

True, that won't come close to solving all the problems in the area. But it will help tackle some of them. The voices that cry for an immediate resolution to the housing problems in the area fail or choose not to recognize that the problems didn't appear overnight. They are the result of many years neglect and they won't disappear overnight. It will take time and patience and work to solve them.

The proposed budget shows the city's, state's, county's and federal government's commitment to improving the living and housing conditions in the city.

We hope that will be recognized by others.

Council should not take stand

The Pahokee city council members were absolutely in not taking an official stand on the city manager question last week.

When they were asked to express their views on whether the city should retain the current concept of a strong mayor and city council system or adopt a strong city manager system, the council members wisely decided not to put their views on record as the city council.

They instead opted to express their personal viewpoints on the subject, due to come up in a straw ballot Oct. 25.

The city council should refrain from endorsing or opposing political causes. That isn't its role.

If individual members of the council want to get involved and express their views, that's another, personal matter. We have no objections.

We've criticized the Pahokee city council in the past for failure to take action on issues, but this is one instance where the council acted properly by not acting at all.

Lyon's Park just keeps on roaring

Lyon's Park is still roaring and Belle Glade city commissioners are trying to find a way to silence the beast, short of killing it.

The park, it seems, finds ways to create problems.

Crowds would gather there and, where there are crowds, there's also noise and rowdy behavior.

That's to be expected, right? Problem is, there are also residents in the area who rightfully resented being kept up at night by the noisy crowd at the park.

So, in an effort to eliminate the crowd and the noise, and give the area residents a break, the city commission last year restricted parking at the park.

Problem solved, right? Well, yes and no. There were no more crowds, but many people who would normally use the park were prevented from doing so because they couldn't park their vehicles there. Now what's the point of even having a park if people can't use it?

So the police department was a bit lenient, it seems, on ticketing for parking at the park. If the individuals parked there were using the facilities for legitimate purposes, and there wasn't any rowdy behavior, the police apparently turned their heads to the parking infractions.

That seems reasonable to us, since the parking restrictions were originated to prevent the rowdy behavior. But area residents, probably rightfully so, said a rule is a rule and if it says "no parking," then there's no parking.

So the city has another problem. How do you promote use of a city recreation facility and retain order at the same time?

City officials may have hit upon a good solution.

If the commission adopts it, the plan is to sell parking decals. Vehicles bearing one of the decals will be allowed to park at the facility.

The cost of the decals could discourage individuals who gathered at the park with no real purpose from purchasing them.

Those who park at Lyon's Park without a decal could be ticketed by the police.

It sounds like a good idea, but, with the record Lyon's Park has, we wouldn't be surprised to hear that other problems have developed.

County recognizes area need

The Palm Beach County Commission, given warning no earlier than the end of August that Glades General Hospital was terminating its basic ambulance service, wasted no time in setting up a new ambulance service in southwest Palm Beach County.

We appreciate the effort and applaud the county on a job well done.

We stated before that an ambulance service is something residents of any area cannot live without. County officials obviously recognize that also, as evidenced by their quick action.

Now, residents of the southwest section of the county can rest assured they will be served by an ambulance if the need should ever arise.

Palm Beach Atlantic Ambulance Service, which took over the basic service Saturday, October 1, was in the area and conducting test runs Friday, September 30.

Advanced Life Support units, with paramedics and more advanced equipment, is still offered by Glades General Hospital.

A decision of this nature could have resulted in a political struggle between the hospital board and county commission.

We are glad to see each side worked together to insure continuous service and a smooth transition from one vendor to the other.

You never know what will come up

I don't know what got into me. There I was sleeping peacefully of a 4 a.m. when I was awakened by a violent dispute erupting between my stomach and what television tells me is my lower digestive system. I seemed to be in the middle although, actually, the disagreement was in the middle of me.

I would have preferred a rational discussion of the problem but my antagonists would have none of it. They rejected me and included everything I'd eaten. "Take that," they said — and I did. "And take that, too." And I did.

Came morning and they were totally wiped out by their media-driven rebellion, leaving me to decide whether I should take them to work or stay home with them. "Will you behave yourselves now?" I asked. My stomach only grumbled something and turned over. There was no feedback from the lower depths. And that was a relief.

Naturally, they slept all day, refusing to eat a thing. I spent the day reviewing the previous day's activities, ad nauseam. Had I, I conjectured, been invaded by a squirming mass of purple and green microbes? If so, I was obviously recuperating, or I couldn't have thought about squirming masses of anything, let alone write the phrase. No, I concluded, it must have been something I ate.

AILS DEWING

"And What Not"

But what had I eaten? Nothing out of the usual. Some stewed tomatoes, sausage and rice with white wine, a couple of peanut butter sandwiches, chocolate cream pie, an avocado and a peach. Nothing to get upset over, to my mind. But then it wasn't my mind that was upset.

Some people might think I'd have done better to remedy the matter with a tonic than talk, but I disagree. I can't even decipher the ingredients on a can of vegetable soup, which allegedly are in English. I certainly can't cope with the patent medicine recipes which could read "junk food" in Latin, for all I know.

"Ah, well," I said, stepping onto the scales this morning. "It's the hard way to lose weight, but it certainly is one way to do it."

No such luck. The only thing those two didn't reject were the calories.

On the face of it (your license)

In case you haven't heard, several changes have been made to, of all things, the Florida drivers license.

The changes affect two categories of people: motorcycle riders and potential organ donors.

Anyone who has ever considered donating organs or tissue can now have "Organ Donor" stamped on the face of their drivers license. This was effective Oct. 1.

All forms necessary to have this taken care of are available at the drivers license office.

The other provision is that motorcycleists must have their qualification entered on the rear of their license. Failure to do so by Oct. 24 will be a violation of state law.

The good news is that motorcycleists who already have licenses will not be required to take any type of additional exam. In other words, they are "grandfathered in."

Future motorcycle riders won't be so lucky. They will have to take a special exam.

This news is from Mark Pistillo, supervisor of the Bradenton District, Division of Drivers Licenses.

On Sex Education Week and handicapped

Editor:

This marks the ninth year that October 5-11 has been set aside to celebrate National Family Sexuality Education Week.

The purpose of the week is to encourage community institutions to conduct special events promoting family education about sexuality.

On October 11, Planned Parenthood and the Association for Retarded Citizens are hosting a program for the parents of the mentally retarded.

The program is entitled "Sex and Your Handicapped Child" and will deal with all aspects of teaching the mentally retarded about sexuality education.

ARC and Planned Parenthood are joining together to combat the idea that knowledge stimulates inappropriate behavior.

We believe this information will give the handicapped the knowledge and the freedom to make their own choices about their sexuality.

Won't you join us for this event? For more information, call the Association for Retarded Citizens at 996-4335 or Planned Parenthood at 996-4223.

Juveniles charged with burglary

BELLE GLADE — Three juveniles are facing burglary charges after allegedly breaking into a Belle Glade home Friday evening, September 30.

According to Belle Glade Police Detective Ray Swaford, the three broke into the residence of Ibbie Rebecca Sheppard at 524 Northwest Second Street in Belle Glade, and fled when pursued by police.

Apparently, one of Sheppard's neighbors noticed the three youths in the area at about 7:40 p.m.

The neighbor saw lights in the house a short time later and, knowing that Sheppard wasn't expected back that evening, looked for her vehicle in the driveway.

He didn't see it and called the police.

When seus Glade Police Lieutenant Louis Lowery arrived at the scene, the three individuals apparently fled.

Officer Jeff Hawkins, arriving at the scene, almost hit one of the youths as they fled.

located at Northwest Seventh and Canal Streets.

The youth was taken to the station and, a short time later, according to Swaford, a second youth appeared at the station and asked about the individual the police had apprehended.

The second youth was asked about his involvement in the burglary and apparently made a statement that implicated himself and the other two individuals.

The mothers of all three youths eventually arrived at the station and were told the youths were wanted for burglary.

The mother of the third youth, who hadn't been apprehended yet, was asked to bring her son to the station.

She found her son on the streets and took him to the police station where all three supposedly made statements admitting their role in the incident.

According to Swaford, all three had just been released from a juvenile detention center for an earlier burglary.

Nothing was removed from the dwelling in the September 30 incident.

Assault arrest made

BELLE GLADE — A Belle Glade man is facing battery and aggravated assault charges as a result of a domestic dispute September 30.

According to Detective Ray Swaford of the Belle Glade Police Department, Officer Joe Whitlock and Auxiliary Patrolman Joe Taylor were dispatched to the scene of the disturbance on Southwest 11th Street at about 7:30 p.m.

At the scene, they learned that Austin Lewis and Lois Lewis had apparently had a dispute and Austin Lewis kicked his wife out of the house.

She told Whitlock Lowery calmed down that she wanted to spend the evening at her mother's house, but needed her purse and keys.

Whitlock knocked on the door and asked Austin Lewis if Lois Lewis could obtain the purse and keys.

Apparently, Austin Lewis opened the door with one hand and threatened to throw a container of drain cleaner in Whitlock's face with the other.

Whitlock pulled his pistol and brandished it in Austin Lewis's face. Lewis then closed the door and Whitlock and Taylor withdrew and called for help.

Lieutenant Louis Lowery calmed down Austin Lewis, according to Swaford, and Lewis was arrested for battery on a spouse and aggravated assault on a police officer.

Prowling charges levied

PAHOKEE — An adult and a juvenile are facing prowling charges after they were apprehended by Pahokee police early Thursday morning, September 29.

According to Pahokee Police Department reports, Officer Mike Harlow was on patrol when he responded to a report on a prowler at 168 North Barfield Highway in Pahokee late Wednesday night. After investigating and finding nothing suspicious in the vicinity of the dwelling, Harlow went back on patrol.

At about 12:05 a.m. Thursday, he responded to another report that Madonna Otto, 42, suspected there was a prowler near her 168 North Barfield Highway residence.

According to the report, Harlow didn't find anyone near the house, but he parked his patrol car and watched the area from the shadows of a tree on a school campus.

After about 20 minutes, he observed two individuals walking across the campus. He used his radio to ask a second officer to intercept the individuals. When the second officer responded through the radio, the two ran.

Harlow pursued the individuals and located them in an alley behind 382 East First Street. When he approached them, the two started to flee, but one of them stopped after a few steps and was apprehended.

The second individual was apprehended later.

Joe Sierra, 20, apparently told police after he was apprehended that he didn't know where he lived. He and a 17-year-old juvenile were charged with prowling.

City checks into parking stickers for Lyon's

BELLE GLADE - City officials are trying to develop a solution to a series of problems stemming from Lyon's Park.

Parking and noisy crowds are apparently the sources of frequent problems surrounding the park.

To avoid noisy crowds from gathering and bothering residents in the area, the city has restricted parking at the facility. Authorities have apparently used their discretion in ticketing those parking in the area. Those using the facilities for "legitimate" purposes were allowed to park at the recreation facility.

That results in complaints from area residents, according to City Manager W.E. "Tom" Strang, Jr.

City officials may soon be trying to solve both problems with parking decals.

Individuals who want to use the facilities at the park could purchase a decal for a "nominal" fee from city hall under the plan. The decal would allow the driver of the vehicle to park at Lyon's Park.

"At least I think it's worth a shot," said Mayor Thomas L. Altman, adding that he didn't think the "problem makers we've had in the past will stroll into city hall and sign up for a decal."

Strang asked how much the city should charge for the decals.

"I think it oughta be something under five dollars," said Altman. "With me, Lyon's Park ranks up there number two with the Country Club in proportion to the number of headaches for what's there. There's gotta be some solution. The people in the neighborhood need to be protected."

He said the decals may give the police department a means to keep order at the park.

erty or paving streets, could be eligible for funding.

No definite plans have been made yet for those funds, he said.

Palm Beach County will have about $320,000 in Section 312 funds to distribute and Harvin said the county is planning to give as much of that to the Glades as possible.

Under Section 312, the funds would be loaned for multi-family residence rehabilitation at interest rates probably no higher than nine percent.

"It seems to be made to order for Belle Glade," said Harvin.

He said the city had asked the county to purchase 20 lots for development but the county commission had decided to acquire only 10 lots for a total of $105,000 in the next fiscal year.

The county also allocated $100,000 to build 44 units. That will be coupled with $276,000 from a Florida land acquisition program to develop single-family homes in the vicinity of Sugar Subdivision.

The city may also receive $120,000 for the rehabilitation of 10 houses.

The county has tentatively budgeted $75,000 for the construction of five houses to be used for relocating families displaced by condemnation or demolition.

The county will pay for the demolition of all buildings, said Harvin, and a total of $7,500 has been budgeted for the demolition of 15 buildings in the city.

The projected budget also includes $6,000 for emergency assistance and $97,000 for administration.

the basic ambulance service, which is all the county is obligated to provide, according to Lennon.

The hospital will continue to offer the advanced ambulance service. That will cost the hospital about $200,000 a year, but it will be saving about $300,000 a year by turning over the basic ambulance service to the county.

Ambulances offering advanced service must be staffed by paramedics. They have the equipment to provide intravenous and fluid treatment and cardio-defibrillation, according to Lennon.

Ambulances equipped only for basic life support need only be staffed by emergency medical technicians trained in cardio-pulmonary resuscitation and first aid, he said.

into the Glades with their transmissions.

Two ambulances staffed with two individuals each would be on duty at all times, according to Littick.

Atlantic has been in business since 1972 and started operating in Palm Beach County in 1976, according to Littick.

Lennon said there was a possibility that the new arrangement would have to be scrapped because a county ordinance requires all ambulance services to hold a certificate from the county, but that the county attorney had apparently worked out any problems. The ordinance apparently exempts Glades General from that requirement.

He also said the county is considering a new ordinance that may bring Glades General under county jurisdiction.

"I don't see where that's a problem," said Lennon. "It seems as though we can't put this ambulance thing to rest. I think what we have to do is live under the old ordinance and see what happens to the new ordinance."

Geoffrey Littick, owner of Palm Beach Atlantic ambulance services, said the company brought its equipment to the Glades Friday afternoon and began running tests.

The company asked the hospital for space but Lennon said no space was available so the company put its crew at another location in Belle Glade. Littick said he was unsure of that address.

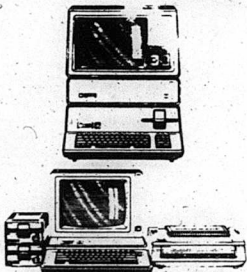

He added that a manager would be moving into the area and that two new ambulances, purchased for a total of $70,000, would be equipped and used in the Glades.

Calls for the service would be relayed through the company's West Palm Beach dispatching office since those radios can reach

Belle Glade navy man receives medal

A former Belle Glade resident, now serving in the United States Navy, was awarded a Navy Achievement Medal for his performance between September 1981 to June 1983.

According to the citation, Petty Officer William Roney Busbin was cited for "professional achievement in the superior performance of his duties while serving as Utilities Technician Supervisor at Administrative Support Unit, Bahrain" from September 15, 1981 to June 15, 1983.

The citation, signed by Secretary of the Navy, J.F. Addams, states Busbin performed his duties in an "exemplary and highly professional manner."

"Displaying exceptional skill and resourcefulness, he reduced the backlog of work requests from 90 days to an "as-occurring" basis. Utilizing his superb organizational abilities and extensive experience, he designed a facility that increased the potable water storage capacity by 400 percent.

"With a limited crew he executed his design, clearly delineating task assignments which resulted in completing the job well ahead of schedule and within budget," continued the citation.

Busbin is a 1978 graduate of Glades Central Community High School.

His wife, Charleen, is a graduate of Christian Day School in Belle Glade.

Busbin's parents, Albert and Charline Busbin, live at 935 Northeast 27th Street.

BELLE GLADE-PAHOKEE, FL.

Walker expects quick offense from Placid

BELLE GLADE - When the Gators face Lake Placid Friday, October 7, the game will present the Glades Day football team with an opportunity to establish their own identity, according to Coach Byron Walker, Jr.

"I think one of our problems in the first three ball games is we're living on past accomplishments," said Walker of the 2-1 defense.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Eagles picked off a Pahokee pass and set up place kicker David Yeager's first of three goals. The 22 yarder cleared passed through the goal post with six minutes and 26 seconds left in the first half.

The Gators beat Lake Placid 20-7 a year ago. Even though the school lost several key players to graduation, Walker still expects a strong game from Lake Placid.

"We expect to see a very quick team that will probably try to throw the football on us," said Walker. "They don't have a lot of size. They lost some key players to graduation. But they always have the good quickness and they're very aggressive."

"We'll have to go in with a good mental attitude."

Walker said the Gators have been working on improving the defense over the past two weeks. The defense, which carried the Gators to the championship last year, hasn't been performing as well as Walker wants.

"We really want to win this one and possibly get some momentum going for our first district game against King's Academy in two weeks," said Walker.

Devils drop to 1-3 with one-point loss to Atlantic

By MIKE UNDERWOOD

PAHOKEE - The Atlantic Eagles used three field goals and a tough defense to squeeze out a 9-8 victory over the Pahokee Blue Devils Friday, September 30.

The loss dropped the Blue Devils to 1-3 overall and 0-3 in the conference.

The Blue Devil defense, which gave up 205 yards on the evening, has been the Devil's only bright spot in the season, according to Coach Amos Turner.

"The defense came up with another good game," said Turner. "I felt like the defense has kept the team in all the games so far. I felt that no experience in the quarterback position has hurt the offensive movement of the ball."

The team has two quarterbacks, Andrew Berry and Richard Payne, who will be back next year.

"With the experience they have earned these first few games, against three and four A schools, they should be ready in two weeks for their first district game against Clewiston," said Turner of the Blue Devils.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Eagles picked off a Pahokee pass and set up place kicker David Yeager's first of three goals. The 22 yarder cleared passed through the goal post with six minutes and 26 seconds left in the first half.

Atlantic took a six point lead with 15 seconds left when Yeager kicked another field goal. The Blue Devil defense held the Eagles scoreless through most of the second half.

But with seven minutes left in the game, Yeager kicked his third field goal. The 17-yard attempt hit the cross-bar and bounced through to give the Eagles a 9-0 lead.

That three-pointer would be the game winner as Pahokee put together a drive that would result in eight points.

With 2:40 left to play, Ricky Lyndale carried the ball over from one yard out to give the Devils their first points of the game.

Quarterback Richard Payne connected with Demetrius Brown on the two-point conversion. The game ended with the score 9-8.

This week, the Blue Devils travel to 4A Lake Worth.

A HORDE OF BLUE DEVILS converge on a lonely Atlantic ball carrier in last week's game.

Crusaders drop 'moral' victory to King's Academy

By ANA HERNANDEZ

BELLE GLADE - The Christian Day School Crusaders, winless in four contests this year, lost 14-0 to seventh ranked King's Academy Friday, September 30, but Coach James Jacks said he thinks the game was still a "moral victory" for the team.

"We played the number seven team in the state, but the boys held them to only two touchdowns," said Jacks. "The boys made a couple of mistakes and couldn't move the ball. It's hard when you only have six guys on offense who have played before."

Jacks said the team's attitude is improving with each game.

"We are getting better and learning from each ball game," said Jacks.

Randy Anderson scored both of King's touchdowns in the first two quarters. He carried the ball over from the three yard line in the first quarter. The kick for the extra-point failed and King's led 6-0.

In the second quarter, Billy Cornwell connected with Anderson on a 72-yard pass to put six more points on the King's side of the scoreboard.

Kirk Smith hit Tim Willcox for the two-point conversion. King's is now 3-1 and Christian Day is 0-4.

Glades Central loses battle of defenses to Fort Pierce

By ALMA HENRY

BELLE GLADE - In what turned out to be a defensive battle between the Glades Central Raiders and the Fort Pierce Westwood Panthers, the Raiders picked up their first loss of the season before a crowd estimated by Fort Pierce officials at over 4,000.

Defensive tackle James Mondis tackled running back Tim Sims for a safety in the second quarter to give Ft. Pierce a 2-0 edge over the Raiders in a non-conference battle.

Playing without first string quarterback Eric Smith, who was injured during the Santalucia-Raider game, and Rhondy Weston, one of the team's leading tacklers, the Raiders offensive team just couldn't put a scoring drive together.

Both teams moved the ball through the air but were hampered by penalties totaling 358 yards. The Raiders were penalized 168 yards and Weston was thrown out of the game during the first quarter on a personal foul penalty.

Weston, one of the Raiders' team leaders, was forced to watch the game from the sideline for the rest of the night. Coach Dan Brown said the game officials should have thrown both players involved in the penalty out of the game or should have given both teams a warning.

The Panthers' defense threw Glades Central's runners for a 32 yard loss and harassed quarterback Kenneth Hammond into a 10-for-32 passing effort.

After the injury of Smith last week, Hammond came into the game and led the Raiders to an overtime victory over Santalucia.

Brown said it took "very doubtful" that Smith will return to the Raiders' line-up against Twin Lakes this Friday. Twin Lakes defeated Palm Beach Gardens High School last week.

Brown said the Raiders will be preparing for Twin Lakes much like they prepared for the Panthers.

"Twin Lakes is a passing team, much like Fort Pierce," said Brown. The Raiders will be play at home.

Both defenses carried the game. Westwood's Curtis Boyd completed only 15 of 25 passes for 215 yards. The Panthers penetrated inside the Raiders' 20 three times only to be turned back frustrated.

Both teams had touchdowns nullified. Glades Central had a 12-yard pass from Hammond to Wardell Jefferson called back and an 18-yard touchdown run by Panther Kevin Nedd was nullified by a holding penalty.

The Raiders had one last chance in the game to pull it out with 1:19 remaining on the clock.

Westwood punter Nathaniel Collins was forced to one knee by a bad snap from center at his own 33. But after a one-yard completion from Hammond to Tim Sims and a 5-yard illegal procedure

CDS volleyball team loses to LaBelle

By ANA HERNANDEZ

BELLE GLADE - The Christian Day School varsity volleyball team lost to LaBelle Thursday after coming back with a second game victory.

LaBelle picked up the first game 15-4, but the Crusaders tied the match up with a 15-9 victory.

LaBelle put the match away with a 15-7 win.

The junior varsity Crusaders were more fortunate and came up with 15-11 and 15-6 victories to claim their match against the junior varsity Cowboys.

Manuals to be developed, but shortcuts may be sought

BELLE GLADE — Engineers working on the new Belle Glade water and sewage treatment plants have the go-ahead to develop operations and maintenance manuals for the plants, but the city commission has ordered its city manager to try to find ways to cut the costs of the manuals.

The manual for the sewage treatment plant is required by the Department of Environmental Regulation and would cost the city a lump sum of $30,000, according to John Cumming, a project manager with the engineering firm of Briley, Wild & Associates.

The water plant manual isn't required right now and the firm offered to compile a manual for the plant for $10,000.

"That manual, if used, is one of the most important items," said Commissioner Charles Goodlett.

"Two very important words there — 'if used,'" commented Mayor Thomas L. Altman.

"That's right," agreed Goodlett. "If it's not used, it's not worth a nickel."

"I agree 100 percent with the 'if used' idea and we try to write them so they are easily used," said Cumming, who added the fees also include some start-up and instructional services.

Altman asked if other similar plants around the country wouldn't be operated in a similar manner and if some of the materials for the manual couldn't be gleaned from their manuals at a lower cost.

Cumming said he was going by information supplied by the person in the firm who would be developing the manuals.

He said that individual, a plant operator, "swore up and down" that each plant has special functions that have to be detailed.

"Thirty thousand dollars for this seems like a lot of money for a plant this size," said Altman.

"It would seem like some of these things would be standardized," agreed Commissioner George L. Goforth, Jr.

The commission approved the development of the manuals but asked the city manager to work with the individual developing them in an effort to find places to cut costs.

"We gotta have the manual, obviously, because of DER regulations for the sewer plant," said Altman. "And it just makes good business sense to have one too for the water plant."

penalty, the Raiders were faced with a second-and-14 at the 37. Hammond then threw three straight incompletes.

The Panthers took over and Davis fell on the ball three times to run out the clock.

The Raiders offense only mustered up nine first downs to Fort Pierce's 19, and Hammond threw for 176 yards. The Panthers had 244 yards passing.
